IMAP Russia advises digital delivery service provider Dostavista on Series C funding round

IMAP is pleased to announce that IMAP Russia has advised digital delivery service, Dostavista, on its Series C investment round from Russian Direct Investment Fund, Mubadala and Vostok New Ventures.

Founded in 2012 and headquartered in Moscow, Dostavista is one of the international leaders in the field of digital delivery services. It currently operates in 10 countries – Brazil, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Mexico, Philippines, Russia, South Korea, Turkey, and Vietnam. Dostavista performs same-day delivery for more than two million B2B clients. The company has already raised a total of $20 million in equity funding in previous rounds.

This investment will allow Dostavista to develop its global business quickly and achieve its long-term goal of becoming one of the market leaders in every country it is present. Due to growing demand for delivery services and the expansion of the e-Commerce segment, Dostavista will be able to continue its expansion in the global markets.

The IMAP Russia (Advance Capital) team, led by Dmitry Kasyanenko, Evgeny Antipov and Artur Shubaev, advised Dostavista throughout the entire transaction process.
